

Legal Project Practitioner (LPP) Certification Application Form

This form is used by graduates of an International Institute of Legal Project Management (IILPM) approved training course conducted by an Accredited Training Provider to be awarded the Legal Project Practitioner™ (LPP) certification. This certification is a practitioner certification and is valid for five years.

On being issued the certification, the certified Legal Project Practitioner will be able to use the LPP logo and the post-nominals LPP after their name during the certification period to confirm their competency level.

An application must be accompanied with a copy of a photo identification document that shows their legal name (e.g., driver's license, passport etc) and requires the approval of the Institute. The application costs US$177.
